STAT

Enclosed are the two copies of the final report document promised for your pre-reading. I'll be bringing with me the other eight copies that make up the set of 10, defined as deliverable in the proposal.

If there are any last-minute comments or questions you may have, I can be reached at my office, at (213) 535-2130, until 8:00 p.m. Friday (EST), then at my home, at [redacted] that evening. I'll be coming to Gaithersburg, MD (friends) on Saturday, and may be reached at either [redacted] or [redacted] in the evening, or Sunday.

[redacted] and I will be at your office Monday (April 19) at 9:00 a.m., with two briefings prepared: one for a technical session on Monday, and one for an executive session on Tuesday. We'll also be fairly well prepared for in-depth technical discussions (designers notes, etc.), so you may plan the sessions accordingly.

I'm looking forward to showing you what I feel is the "good news" output of our efforts.

Sincerely,
